Use the form to "Ask First!"

The reason for "Ask First!"

Many planning advisors are well-qualified and capable, and make fair disclosure to their clients. Unfortunately, unqualified or dishonest individuals also pretend to be expert planning advisors; and many of them provide sub-standard services or have hidden financial motives in providing their "planning services."

Why use "Ask First!"?

- You are entitled to the information which the form requests.
- You can find out in advance if the person offering planning services to you has legitimate professional credentials.
- You can find out in advance if the person will serve as a fiduciary and put your interests first.
- You can find out in advance if the person has hidden financial motives.

You can use the completed form as evidence, if the person's answers are false.

When to use "Ask First!"

- Have the person offering planning services complete and return the form to you, before you do any other business.
- At the same time, ask for and check the person's references.

How to use "Ask First!"

- If the person is reluctant to complete the form, take this as a warning.
- If the person will not put your interests first, take this as a warning.
- Review the person's answers, and look for missing or inconsistent information.
- Check out the person's licenses and other credentials, and past complaints and sanctions.

If the person doesn't answer all the questions, or if the answers make you uncomfortable, or if the answers do not "check out," do not do business with the person. Look for another planner!
