

Lindsey N. Jacobs, CSPG

Director, Gift Planning Strategies

lijacobs@scfta.org

Direct : 714-942-6239

Office : 714-556-2122 x 4693

www.scfta.org

600 Town Center Drive

Costa Mesa, CA 92626

Lindsey Jacobs has been in the planned giving world for 12 years and became a certified specialist in planned giving in 2020 to better serve as philanthropic advisor to donors. In her current role as Director of Gift Planning Strategies at Segerstrom Center for the Arts, she serves as a philanthropic advisor for supporters of the Center looking to create to create personal and meaningful legacies through charitable giving. Lindsey previously worked at her alma mater, Chapman University, managing its charitable gift annuity program and serving as a philanthropic advisor for almost 12 years. In addition to previously working at Chapman, Lindsey earned two degrees from the university, a bachelor's in theatre and a master's in leadership development. She is happy to provide information or illustrations for any of the gifts described in the Tax Advantages for Philanthropy presentation.